UPDATE: (KVIC) Delhi High Court holds the 'KHADI' mark along with the 'Charkha' logo well-known

The Khadi & Village Industries Commission (KVIC)

approached the Delhi High Court this July seeking permanent injunction, costs and damages against an entity called 'Khadi by Heritage' who was selling PPE kits, hand sanitizers and fireballs under the mark 'Khadi by Heritage'. The said entity was also using the 'Charkha logos' of KVIC on its products. KVIC, a statutory body established by the Act of Parliament, had asserted its proprietorship over its renowned trademark 'KHADI' as well as 'Charkha' logo which are registered under several classes of the Trademarks Act in its favour. Justice Prathiba Singh of the Delhi High Court, in a judgement dated 26th July 2022, held that the trademark Khadi along with the Charkha logo are well-known trademarks. The Court also noted that the use of the trademark 'KHADI' in this manner, especially in relation to medical products raises enormous concerns in respect of the quality of these products apart from constituting violations of KVIC's rights. The Court directed the Domain Name Registrars with whom the Defendants' domains were registered, to transfer them to KVIC within one week. In an unconventional twist, the Court also directed the Indian Trademark Registry to suo moto reject all trademark applications filed by Khadi by Heritage, in light of this order. The Court directed that the appropriate orders to this effect shall be updated on the Trademark Registry portal within four weeks. On the same day, in another matter filed by KVIC against an entity called KDCI or Khadi Design Council of India, which has been organizing pageants called Miss and Mrs. India Khadi, the court passed an order reiterating that the Khadi trademark and Charkha logos are well known and cannot be misused. Taking strict note of the acts of KDCI's founder Ankush Anami, the court issued a show cause notice for contempt against him, with the observation that the material produced by Counsel for KVIC prima facie shows that despite an injunction order passed against him, the Defendant is corresponding with Ministries, State governments, using the Khadi trademarks.

UPDATE: (HPCL) HPCL & Honda join hands to boost Electric Mobility in India

Taking a significant leap toward its sustainable mobility drive, the Maharatna Oil Co. of India, Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Limited (HPCL) and Honda Power Pack Energy India Private Limited (HEID), the subsidiary of Honda Motor Co., Ltd. (Honda), a global mobility giant, launched their first e:swap Station at HPCL's COMCO outlet at Old Airport Road, Bengaluru on 6 August 2022. Internal Combustion Engine (ICE) vehicles have to make way for environment friendly Electric Vehicles (EVs) for a brighter, greener and sustainable future. However, the adoption of EVs is not easy, especially when charging the EV battery is not as fast as filling the fuel (Petrol/Diesel) tank. This is where the fascinating technique of battery swapping brought in by HPCL comes into play. Traditional cable-based charging of EVs is replaced by another solution, battery swapping.
